

HETTY GREEN'S SON OUTWITS A LAWYER

Counsel of Man Hurt on Yacht Appeals to Court.

Col. Edward H. R. Green, son of the late Hetty Green, is so elusive as to make it impossible to serve a summons upon him personally was the reason given yesterday by Frederick R. Graves, a lawyer of 255 Broadway, for asking Justice Manning in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for permission to serve him in some other manner. After listening to the woes of the disappointed process server the court granted permission to Mr. Graves to serve Col. Green by leaving the summons in his office or tacking it on his door if necessary.

Mr. Graves is counsel for Jose Diaz, a seaman on Col. Green's yacht, the United States, who is seeking to recover $10,000 damages for burns received while at work on the boat. Affidavits submitted by Mr. Graves told of repeated trips to process servers to Col. Green's office in the Windham Realization Company at 111 Broadway that ended in failure to find Col. Green, locate the address of his home or to learn something definite as to his whereabouts.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES TO GET A MILLION

Assured of More Than Twice the Sum Asked.

Members of the committee directing the Catholic Charities enrollment drive, which ends today, said yesterday that a total of $1,000,000, or twice the sum asked by Archbishop Hayes, practically was assured. With fifty-four parishes still out of the tabulation because of their failure to make returns on time and the total on hand yesterday afternoon was $865,556.28, more than one-half of which had been paid in cash. All pledges are made under the agreement that they are to be renewed for three years.

Among the parishes that have exceeded the quotas assigned them are those of St. Joseph, Waverly place; St. Brigid, Avenue B; Immaculate Conception, East Fourteenth street; Holy Redeemer, East Third street; Transfiguration, West Street; St. Francis Xavier, West Sixteenth street; St. Paul, West Fifty-ninth street; Our Lady of Lourdes, West 142d street; Sacred Heart, West Fifty-first street; St. Vincent de Paul, West Fifty-ninth street; St. Catherine of Siena, East Sixty-ninth street; St. Cecilia, East 106th street; Holy Rector, East 119th street; and Our Lady of Good Counsel, East Ninetieth street.

These Thrift Values Enable You to Buy Well and Save Wisely HERE

FOR nearly a century Hearn has stood for moderation in pricing and for unmatched values. The reasons which made this possible were low rents, buying for cash, a policy of moderate profits. These reasons to-day are a mainstay to our thousands of customers who realize in this time of unprecedented prices what it means to have the resources of this great store powerfully and unceasingly exerted to afford them the best merchandise for as little money as is consistent with the qualities we offer.

THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL VALUES FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY:

An Interesting Showing of "Greenwich Village" Batik Silks for Draperies 2.47

And for all other purposes, for which Oriental designs and colorings are in vogue.

IN remote historical periods ancient Japanese idols were draped in exquisite Batik fabrics—some of which exist still and amaze one by the exceeding beauty and delicacy of the work upon them.

AN American artist studying in the Orient learned to Batik (wax in), and brought the art back with him to Greenwich Village. Others learned from him, and soon a large business sprang up in these "Greenwich Village" silks, as people began calling them.

Very expressive they were, with all the designs waxed in by hand—till a machine was discovered that reproduced the "crackly" Batik effect with wonderful exactitude.

Rugs of Distinction

True rug economy—like all genuine economy—consists mainly in buying only the best.

The house of Hearn has long been famous for its steadfast adherence to the principle of purchasing only goods of standard quality—the best that money can buy—and re-selling them to their customers at as small a profit as is consistent with fair and square business ideals.

Years of experience have enabled us to choose rugs which are the embodiment of good taste, beautifully designed, and in accord with modern furnishing requirements, and yet keep the prices consistently low.
